Baptist Association hosts Baccalaureate

The Franklin County Missionary Baptist Association hosted its annual Baccalaureate Ceremony to honor 13 high school graduates in their membership churches. It was held via Zoom on Saturday, June 4. Fourth Vice Moderator Reverend Timothy J. Faison Sr., pastor of New Liberty, presided over services.

A dynamic and motivational charge was given to the graduates by Dr. David K. Rosby, second Vice Moderator and pastor of the South Main Street Baptist Church. He reminded them that they needed to take what they learned in church with them as they take their journey whether they matriculate to college or the work force. God is still on their side and that it is alright to call on Him when you need help.

Reverend Cora P. Campbell, Youth Department Advisor and Moderator Reverend Stanley M. Dunston, pastor of Allen Chapel Baptist Church, gave remarks and words of encouragement. All graduates received an honorarium as part of the recognition.
