RESOLUTION NO. 2024-R- 65

[A Resolution in Support of Education in Franklin County]

Whereas, the Town of Louisburg Council believes that education is the foundation for individual success, economic prosperity, improved quality of life and our democratic society;

Whereas, the Town of Louisburg Council believes strongly in our community and the need for strengthening the foundations for the success of Franklin County;

Whereas, we believe that educating Franklin County children will prepare good citizens, a talented workforce and strong leaders and that improving our public education can improve the quality of life for all of our citizens;

Whereas, the Town of Louisburg Council recognizes that public schools need community support to be successful; NOW, THEREFORE, the Town of Louisburg Council hereby publicly supports the Education in Franklin County and, further, declares its support and commitment to achieving the vision for the future of Franklin County.

Louisburg College Celebrates its 2025 Commencement

From Staff Reports

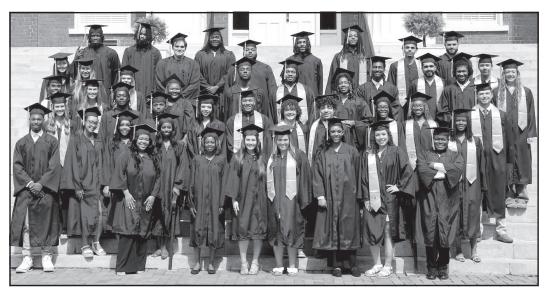

LOUISBURG — Louisburg College held its 2025 Commencement Ceremony at the Jones Performing Arts Center (JPAC) on May 17.

Students, family, and friends arrived at the JPAC for the 11 a.m. exercise that honored and celebrated the Louisburg College Class of 2025. This year, 87 graduates walked across the stage to receive their Associate degrees in General College, General Science, Business, Agricultural Studies, Environmental Science, Health Science, Medical Science, and Sports Science.

student speaker Adamaris Anorve-Basoria, a Summa Cum Laude graduate who earned her degree in Sports Science, and guest speaker Glynnis Hill-Chandler, an educator and member of the LC Board of Trustees.

Commencement was the height of many graduation weekend events, which started on May 16.

The graduating class, faculty, and staff kicked off the celebratory

The event featured speeches from from James Green II,
